To Paul at Twyford

Saturday, 23rd February 1918

How is my little man getting on? This day week we shall be together I hope! You must have a fine day for me, so that we can have a good walk!

I shall engage a room at the Bristol Hotel.

We had v. nice letters from the boys - Stephen seems to like Rugby v. much - I am going to Lu then on Tuesday, & we shall send you a Card from there. We shall stop with Mrs. Ruttle, & probably Auntie Giraffe will go with me.

* John is still at the Willows & keeps talking about the Raids! Poor little man, I think they frightened him a lot. You don't say how your music is getting on? Tell me how you get on with the new master whom you did not like at first?

Doll Livingstone is here to stay for a week -
She would much like to see you, & was looking with great interest at your pictures.

Dear Daddy is much the same. He had such a nice picture ready for me, painted in water colours of some flowers I had brought him! I brought home with me the flying machine, which you will enjoy in the hols =

If only dear Daddy will be free by Easter!

How did your photos succeed?

A big hug to my dear red man from Mummy.

Mlle Champseix was in this evening & we had a little French chat.
