

5. 8. 14.

29, GROSVENOR SQUARE,
W.

Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

Fate appears always to interfere against your visits. -

Not only shall I have my time so fully occupied now, but the train service will be disorganized, and I see nothing for it except to hope that you may be able to come to England at a quieter time. -

Meanwhile we can only hope! -

Believe me,

yours very truly

Bath.