Dear Mrs de Lassli,

As I arrived to Paris
I had the wish to write you at once and thank you for all the kindnesses you and your husband have been so good to show us during our London stay. But our first day in Paris was quite trouble from the awful keens which reached us just at the four-children.

Grand Prix. All though they I was so happy to get have not been great friends such a charming picture to the Hungarians we pity from you and your sweet very much their death and little Johnnie and are pity especially much the thanking you very much
