

publishing

Nov. 13th.

28, HYDE PARK STREET,
W.

Dear Mr. Hazle,

It wd. be very kind indeed on yr.

part, if you wd. jot

down for me on a

scrap of paper, (a) the addresses of photographers,

(b) engravers, who are

reproducing
of the Lake Lynchellon.
Lynchellon
to ask you for these addresses; but until I met you yesterday,
I hardly ventured to trouble you. - I am

your portrait
Mr. Alfred
Mrs. Alfred
advised me
for these until yesterday,
to
I am

very anxious to obtain a good photograph of your fine portrait. It is a very interesting subject, who was also a deeply valued friend to him me

Very truly yes.
Lady Ulrica Tarring.