

Carnegie Institute

Pittsburgh, Pa.

JOHN W. BEATTY, M.A.,
DIRECTOR OF FINE ARTS.

July 20, 1908.

Mr. P. A. Laszlo,
West House, Campden Hill Road,
Kensington, W. London, England.

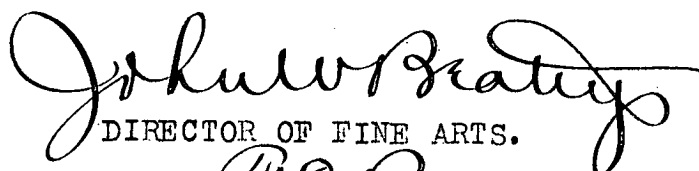

Dear Sir:

Your painting entitled, His Eminence Cardinal Rampolla, has been shipped to Messrs. Dicksee and Company, 7, Duke Street, St. James's, London, with instructions to forward it to West House, Campden Hill Road, Kensington, London, the address given by you for its return.

For the convenience of record and for receipt, kindly sign and return the enclosed card as soon as the painting is received.

Thanking you in the name of the Trustees for your contribution to the success of the twelfth annual exhibition, I remain,

Yours truly,

DIRECTOR OF FINE ARTS.
J.W.B.

Enc. : As above.

(FCP-VAT)