Dear Mr de Laszlo.

Thank you very much for your letter, Given me by Margaret,
for on this occasion,
it is the mother not
the daughter who has the pleasure of writing
you. I have given Miss Cross your message.

She asks me to thank you & tell you that Tuesday afternoon next, at 5 oc lock but her equally will to come to you - & I intend to give myself the pleasure of bringing her, & her daughters, to your studio. Margaret joins with me in remembrance
to Mrs de Lanza.

Yours sincerely,
Edith Washburn
