Dear Mr. Liszlo

Many thanks for your kind letter received this morning. it will give me great pleasure to come to lunch on Thursday at 1.30.

The three pictures you sent to the present exhibition of the Royal Society of British Artists have been greatly admired both by the members and the public, and all seem agreed that the exhibition is of a very high character.

I look forward to a very pleasant meeting on Thursday and in the meantime with all kind wishes to Mr. Liszlo and yourself.

Remain yours truly
T. Wall Cope.
