

GRAND HÔTEL-VENISE

111. A. BERNARDI - MILANE

Venise, Monday morning

Dear Mr Laugel

Just a line to express the hope that you have had no ill effects from your wetting.
When I arrived at my hotel I was quite warm from my sharp walk, and so I am sure have had no chill. I hope it was the same with you.

I sincerely trust that a friendship begun under such romantic conditions will be continued, and that, busy as I know you are, you will from time to time remember me. Mr. Capi sends best regards Yours very sincerely

Carew Martin
