

June 11

Dear Mr. László

With great respect
I am approaching you
upon a small matter in which I earnestly trust you will lend me your kind assistance.

The facts of my case are as follows - I am interested in a big Institute for working young men in a poor part of London

portrait of Lord Roberts
I now come to my point.
Could you put me in the way of finding a photograph of your excellent portrait of Lord Roberts which hangs in the memorial Hall at Etar, and if so, would you allow me to have it reproduced in our Magazine? I must explain that this Institute is managed and controlled by a body of men who have been at Etan and Lord Roberts, ^{our President}, as you know, was himself an Etan.

I thought therefore it would be a nice idea to reproduce in the Magazine a photograph of your picture.
I should be deeply and sincerely grateful to you if you would permit this and if you would kindly tell me how I can get a photograph of it. My address is The Hanble Edward Cadogan Chelsea House Cadogan Place.
I must apologise humbly for thus troubling you Yours sincerely
Edward Cadogan
