

CRAWLEY HILL HOUSE,
CAMBERLEY.

29. 10. 11

My dear László

What a noble
Christian you are to send me the sketch of his Chief!
I can't tell you what a delight it is, and always with her, to me. They say "everything comes to him who knows how to wait," but surely there is some merit in "knowing how to ask"!
A man clearly without shame!

My wife speaks in glowing enthusiasm about the picture for Eton - that is good - I love Eton and I love the Chief - I am glad to think that future generations at Stone will have a good thing of the Splendid Little Man to look upon.

I hope to see you & the picture
this week.

Yours ever

W. S. Fawcett
