

MONSIEUR ROMAIN ROLLAND'S PROTEST BY MEN
OF LETTERS AND ARTISTS AGAINST THE WANTON
DESTRUCTION OF HISTORIC MONUMENTS

21 BEDFORD STREET,
LONDON, W.C.

Dear Sir (or Madam),

Monsieur Romain Rolland, the author of "Jean Christophe," has sent me the enclosed protest against the destruction of historic and artistic monuments by the Germans, and proposes that it should be signed by the leading men of letters and artists in England and France. It is intended to publish the signatures, and to deposit the originals in the Peace Palace at The Hague.

May I ask you, if you are in sympathy with the protest, to oblige me by signing and returning it to me.

Yours faithfully,

Wm. H. Newman
