American Embassy,
Berlin, Germany.

Dear Mr. Lasele,
I am so very
indebted to you
for the beautiful
sketch of the Emperor, which
you have so
kindly executed
for me. I am
in an embarrassment in regard
to it, ^{namely}
that the head
is much too large
to go into my

album. I had not thought to warn you as I thought you
knew it was to go into a book.
When Mr. Fargus
saw the first
sketch of yourself
in the album
he drew it as
quarter the size
of the head you
have sent.

I had thought
of having a letter

Things on his
Martyr's page.
A photo & the
interscript &
perhaps the suzerain of his
page. I think
a real Maala
Ray photograph
page & page layout
would have been
nice, Ray in military uniform
& with helmet on
head. They placed
not quite in the middle of page
so that they would be more per

Love & my
friendship
Dear Mr. Lusk
I hope you
won't think
me ungrateful
for I am indeed
deeply touched
by all your kindness in
the matter.

Hoping I feel you
may be willing to execute the wishes of
I with best
appreciation

Your profoundly
fraternal
Gale L. P. Hice
