My dear Mr. Lupton,

Many thanks for your kind letter. A mysterious advice came to me at the office a few days ago relating to a case of wine. I have been puzzling my brains as to who might be the gracious sender. Your letter now solves the problem & it is to you my best & heartly thanks are due, & with tenderest regards.
I receive the precious bottle

I will advise you
I am sorry to hear you are postponing your London stage, but hope, nevertheless, we shall be seeing something of you in England ere long.
When next you come I trust you will be able to spare a little more of your company at Upton Grey.

Ever yours truly
Charles John.
