Dear Mr. Lugo

We propose to hold in January next an Exhibition of Paintings of the Chiefs of the Staff & the Admirals & Generals who <sup>in command</sup> are at the front & we are receiving considerable support for the proposal.

You have I believe painted several of these (Lady Beatty has this morning promised the loan of that of her husband from your brush). We should be glad therefore if we could have your assistance & support if you will kindly write us. The Exhibition will

We are assured that the Commissions being given & it is to this source that we must look for any return as the admissions after deduction of the Expenses of advertising will be handed over to a trust fund.

May I come & see you on the subject?

Yours faithfully
Maurice Stuck

Have you painted Lord Fisher or Churchill? I should like to try to get your <sup>and</sup> Robert from St. Martin's and St. Martin's I think.
