ALDERLEY PARK,

CHELFORD, CHESHIRE.

18. Nov. 1918

Dear Mr de la Zo

I do hope that the end of the war
will set you and your people free. No doubt in view of the armistice I should be treated at
the end of the war
But I don't think it would be wise to raise any agitation
at this minute.
First of all there is

ALDENLEY PA
CHELSEA CHURCH

no more seeing second hand pieces
asking for a distributor from the dealers and he will not want for the amount to spend the papers by selling the same who are interested. I think if he does not meet the county other dealers he will likely with his attempts to be reasonable - especially as I hope there will be some popular force to combat on account of the lack of education, energy and humane action to be intended will probably follow, and in any case the crushing defeat of the Germans will tend to diminish the necessity

and excitement
which have led to
so much injustice.
My dear friend
before your husband has made I hope
for his speedy release and for his welcome by his friends among whom I am sure to meet myself

Yours sincerely
Sheffield
