Dear Mr. Laszlo,

We finally got the railway pass, about which you were so kind as to write for us the day before yesterday. When we got to Budapest, much later than we expected as we stayed in Vienna to see the "Festzug", we found that Mr. Kossuth was away ill - So we called on the State Secretary Sterényi - He knew nothing about The matter however I could not read a letter in English which I had written him enclosing your card -

However - he asked us if we knew anyone here & finally said that ~~he~~ if Baron Josika would telegraph recommending us he would give what we asked -

If it had not been for your kindness I should never have ventured to ask for this favour.

It has been terribly hot since we came to Hungary - a few days at Esztergom were the warmest I ever remembered.

They have some splendid treasures in the Sacristy of the Basilica there.

My wife joins me in very kind regards & I am

Sincerely yours
Adrian Stokes
