Dear Uncle Casp.

I am writing on behalf of Furi who is now ill. The cause came here I visit & to cause possibly had bettering on a cold blustering day and took a frightful chill.
Poor fellow he has suffered terribly and has paid dearly for the very uninteresting spot. He is much better now but has such a great test he can't hold a pen & write more his name

He asks you & surely Saturday evening of the 11th Sept. free to dine with him and go & hear his oration at Seven Hall. We shall have a small party which I am sure will be very sympathetic

To you. The photos of the great protest are splendid especially the large ones - to get an eternal joy & satisfaction that is - I remember your glorious work.

Heri begs I send you
his affectionate greetings ~~and~~ I will

Yours most sincerely,

Susan Strong

Warmest regards to Madame de Castiglione
