14, BEDFORD SQUARE,

W.C.

Dear Madame Vaiglo
I received the enclosed this a.m from Mr. Alcock a married daughter of Lord St. Leonards whom I wrote so as you will see it is all right. as I knew it w^d be about Mr. Vaiglo's grief so see Mr. Michael's remark I only hope they will have a really Friday & see it to the best advantage of course I don't want the enclosed back to just leave it up. In case you did not clearly hear through the telephone what I said about Moral Edmunds was that if it is possible they ought to stop a night at Plymouth & see M. S. Smith is a beautiful place. nothing particular in the house. Book me via Mr. Johnson.

but the grounds are lovely.
Dad & dady Mr. Edgewood are very great & old friends of mine & if there is any likelihood of their (Mr. dady & Mr. East) wishing or being able to see it. I w^d write to dady Mr. E. & I know she & dady w^d be delighted that they w^d see everything. but don't trouble to answer this unless you think there is a chance of their going.
My address tomorrow & after will be Shillingstone Grange Blanchford

I hope when Mr. King is at Hatten you that he will sooner to describe a permanent water table & see my eldest sister Mr. Marshall she is a great friend of Mr. Doster permanent water is well worth seeing. In haste

Believe me with all good wishes to you for Christmas & the New Year Yours very sincerely
Isaac C. Stewart
I expect to be back about the New Year Jan. 2 to be forward to seeing you again
