

Berlin The 25th Jan.
1916.

My dear Professor!

I cannot tell, how glad would I be, could I get one line of you, how you were, where you are, now - if you think of me sometimes? - well I believe, that you are as friendly towards me, as before? I should be happy because than the thought of future would be easier, how will I succeed got news!... Since the very first day I was in the front, - not - part of course cannot work anything worthy, though small little pencil sketches were exhibited lately in a war-out- exhibition in Kunst, one of them sold by the K.K. Steers Minister, I saw

Happy, but I think there will be long time, till we shall work in peace again.

I am now travelling through Berlin to the front, having had a 4 weeks holiday for the first time since begin, it was glorious!

I have written to you several times, but, pity, could not get answer, probably you did not receive my letters. In hope that you will receive these ones, I send you my heartyest greetings and believed of my firmest, friendly affection, yours always Thankful pupil

Henry Ford
how. times fly.

Ms. If you kindly write, please to advise: Miss Ida v. Neuhäuser, Berlin W.
Stüler Str. N. 5.
who will kindly forward it to me.