

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS
"MARS, DUBLIN."

17 Dec 18

17, COLLEGE GREEN,

DUBLIN.

My dear Phil,

I have heard
with much
pleasure that you have been allowed to go down to Sir C. Russell's place on the Thames to have Lucy and
the children with

In fact was -

This must have been a fresh
pig to you all
and I hope it is an "earnest"
pulet is down to folks, i.e. your complete release -
You are indeed

had a bitter time
of it since Aug 1917
but let us hope
that all the ill feeling created by the war
will now gradually
pass away both as between nations &
individuals.

It was very kind
of Sir Charles
placing his name

at your disposal & I am sure both
you, Lucy & the boys
must have had a happy re-union in such pleasant surroundings.

Best wishes and all
good luck for 1919

Yours always

Howard