Dear Monsieur Laiszi

I venture to recall myself to your recollection as a friend of Mr. Mr. Adrian Stokes who were exhibiting their pictures in my studio.

A friend of mine from Cambridge is anxious to see you about a presentation portrait of her father, a distinguished professor, which is to be painted for the University of Cambridge. She will be with me tomorrow (Tuesday) and Wednesday, and would be most grateful to you if you could fit some time tomorrow afternoon or Wednesday afternoon to see her. I hope to take ^{her} and introduce her to you.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

Alicia Wattleke

For some time I will send to your house

Commons (Tuesday) morning for an answer at 10.30.

My friends in great admiration of your work.
