Dear Mr. Laszlo

We are so sorry that you are unable to undertake the portrait of my wife before we sail for America - If anything unfur-

- seen should occur in your engagements please do not forget how much we should like to have the portrait painted before we start -

My wife is so well now after her holidays up here & I am afraid the season in Washington is rather a trying time for her & takes a good deal out of her owing to all the social duties - We should accept as like very much to come to your studio again before we sail & will write as you kindly suggest - With very kind regards Believe me

Yours very truly

B. R. James.
