Dear Mrs. Daisy to

I feel I must send you this little message from my brother & myself, with most sincere thanks for your kind words about my father. I am indeed thankful that for him the weary days of dwindling strength were comparatively few, he was at work on the third volume of his History of Roman Law almost to within a week of his passing away, & his sight - hearing & thinking powers were perfect to the end. But ever since my mother died in 1887. he & I have been the closest & dearest of friends, he was the absolute inspiration of my life, & I miss my so well-beloved companion more & more every day & every hour. The Eternal Silence is so hard to bear. Your portrait will be a joy for ever.

With grateful thanks to you & Mrs Sedaylo for your kind thoughts of me, in my great sadness & loneliness, Yours very sincerely
May Webber
