

HORRIDGE P.

Aug. 20. 1917.

Derwentwater Hotel,
Keswick.

Telegrams: Derwentwater Hotel,
Portinscale.

Telephones:
No. 1, Keswick.

Dear Mr. Cleda Szlo.

It was such a very real disappointment
to us to be unable to come and see your pictures before we left Town.

My Husband had such a hectic time
in the Divorce Court

hence so busy he could never get
to your studio before five o'clock and that was too late
for you to catch your train.
And so we were

---

obliged to give up the pleasure but I hope it is only <sup>post</sup> <sup>poned</sup> I am so especially anxious to see your portrait of the man

who's my husband's double!

I hope that you are having a beautiful
summer and that you are not too busy
to be able to enjoy
your life at Leeds.
The weather here is very wet but we manage to play
golf most days.
My husband enjoys

the quiet after the life in court.

We return to London on the 25th of September after we get home I will telephone and ask if we may come see
you.

Would you please give my love to W& C. I I look forward to our long delayed year
to the Zoo with you & Boy.
Forgive my bothering you with this letter it is only to explain why we could call. Your very sincere Evelyn & Archie