

19th October 1923.

Dear Miss Jolley,

Please forgive me for the delay in replying to your kind letter. I have been away in the country painting and only got your letter on my return.

I thank you very much for the interest you have taken in the matter of which you write to me, ~~about~~ sorry to say that at the moment I am unable to make use of your kind suggestion, as we are leaving next week for Rome. After that I have to go to Paris for a fortnight, and will not return to London until the end of November or beginning of December. If the matter is still then possible, I hope we will come to an understanding, and I will again write to you.

Again many thanks.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Miss E.M. Jolley,
