Dear Mr de Laszlo,

The Photographische Gesellschaft has handed me the letter which your secretary addressed to them on December 27th, with an enquiry about the reproductions of the portraits which you painted in 1908 of the late King Edward and Queen Alexandra. I beg to say that neither the Photographische Gesellschaft nor anyone with whom I was connected had reproduced these pictures, so I very much regret that I cannot supply any reproductions.

You had enquired from Berlin as to my address, which is as above.

Always with the greatest pleasure at your service, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

PS I am making further enquiries and will let you know in due course.
