

under the abnormal suggestions of Mrs Rose. Surely he is a talented man, but he has committed much mischief in international politics.

I had a letter from your brother. I see that he had not a very good time. I hope to see him very soon.

I hope you and Mrs Laslo
are quite well.

Believe me your old
and truly friend
S. Münz

Philipp de Laslo⁴⁵
189.

3 Fitzjohns Avenue

Hampstead

London

Vienna, Dec. 12th

My dear friend, You may be at this moment far from London together with your boys. It was a great satisfaction to me to have met you at Paris in this year, which will be finished in a few days. To you and to Mrs Laszlo and to all your boys my best and heartiest wishes for a happy new year. — Have you read the recollections of Henry Wickham Steed which have been lately published in London by Heinemann under the title, "Through thirty years"? I am sure that this two volumes may contain a lot of lies. Unfortunately I had no opportunity to see this work here in Vienna. But I saw a letter published in the "Times" by the duke of Portland regarding the communications of Steed on Francis Ferdinand, in which the writer is accusing the author to have lied. I think Mr St. is personally an honest man, but too much