MARLOW, BUCKS.

My dear friend

In obedience to your command I propose to turn up on Tuesday afternoon. You said something about our having an evening out together but I hope you will not make any arrangement on my account — you know I always enjoy an evening at home with you — and that you will do what is best for yourself and decide to rest if you feel that way inclined. I shall be quite content.

always yours

A. H. Baldry.
