MARLOW COMMON,

MARLOW, BUCKS.

My dear friend

I am exceedingly sorry but I cannot get to you this week; I have an engagement fixed up here for Thursday that I cannot get out of. May I come next week? If I may, I will fix things up so as to be free; I want to hear all about your trip abroad.

I am very sorry indeed to hear about John; it must have been a great shock to you to have him so ill while you were away but I am very glad he is better and I hope he will soon be all right again. Fortunately, there are still three months of warm weather to come so he will have

I hope that you and Mrs de Laszlo are all right in spite of your anxieties - your journey must have been a great rush out the winter. It is very bad luck indeed that he should have Henry's success must have pleased you greatly - give him my heartiest congratulations when you are writing to him.

I know you will be very sorry to hear that Peter and Violet young people as they were very proud of the baby and had many hopes for its future.
