Dear Mr. de Laszlo.

I promised to send you the result of our interview. Here it is.

as usual — the sub-editors have been busy cutting all the best bits out — but even so it is not so mangled as things usually are —

I do hope I may see you again some time? —

Perhaps if you are even in on Sundays I might be allowed me afternoon to bring my mother up to see a few of your beautiful pictures - (I will try to describe more adequately - according to your ideas!) -

Thank you for the time you gave us -

Diana Sourbon.

P.S. I have saved some of the best things you said & they will make their appearance from time to time as Paragraphs in "The Londoner's Diary" section -
