

12th January, 1927.

Dear Miss Bourbon,

Many thanks for your letter and the cutting of your interview, which I think is splendid. How well you were able to keep in your memory all I said!

I will be very pleased to see you soon one day, with your mother, if you would visit me, in the afternoon about 4 o'clock, when I am always free.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Bourbon,
