I want to say that you'll spoil your vacation by working.

(1) Perfect - I'll put you up when you come.

My dear Friend:- Well, here I am again at home, arriving on the 5th inst. Will you excu Mrs. Lázlo's excuse my absence and failures make my dinner call, for really these are excusable under the circumstances, by which I became surrounded. I could have called you up; but I had to do that always fearing me may be called to the phone at the most inopportune time. My heart went wrong the day after our dinner and from that time until my leaving I was never allowed out of bed before 1 P.M. and had to be back in bed by 10 nightly. Never had my time down terribly and I had a very hard time. The trouble was all due to the rush over my two books (was) bring in the press at the same time. I'll send you copy of Chamberlain's Guide to Mapoia if I may and at even appears. The proofreading of this little book is most damnable and interesting, ~~that~~ it is in English & set up into type by Spawards, who does not know one word of English. The greatest trouble comes in the separation of the words at the ends of lines - and they have us conspicuous in dividing wh into w - h; and into wh - ich; and whi - ch, etc. etc.

When do you get to the U.S.? I want you to call & see a friend or two. Would you would honor me by a signed photo of yourself - autographed to me - as I may have it framed. I shall be very proud if you will the highest ~~with~~ <sup>to</sup> your wife and the boys, & believe me your friend Fredrick Chamberlain.
