

22nd October, 1926.

My dear Leipnik,

I have just received your letter dated October 18th, and was very pleased to hear from you.

I am sorry to say that I have not received the letters from you, which you mention, and was very disappointed about it.

I am just off to Paris, where I shall be until about November 15th. My address will be:-

42 bis., Avenue Henri Martin and many interesting sitters are awaiting my arrival.

So much has happened since I last saw you, that rainy night in New York, and I would like very much to see you and to have a good chat, and to discuss the book which you intend to write.

You mention that we could meet in Italy. We have just returned from there, where I spent some very interesting days, but if we do not meet in Paris, I shall much hope to see you here.

Please write to me as soon as you arrive and looking forward to hearing from you.

Believe me, with kind regards,

Very cordially yours,

F.L. Leipnik, Esq.,
Hotel Esplanade,
BUCHAREST.
