Dear Mr. de Lurgis,

I sent you a message this morning, on the telephone, & this is to repeat it.

I wrote a little while ago to ask if you would take part in a Conference ^{on October 16th} on the "Relations of Franciscan Idealism to Art & Learning." (It is the 4th Centenary of St. Francis this year & we are organizing a celebration at the Guildhouse.) Will you? Please do! Many people have a vague idea that Voluntary Poverty is a beautiful ideal, without considering the difficulties it raises in connection with Art! Will you help us?

We should be so very grateful.
Forgive my troubling you.

Yours sincerely,

A. Francis Royden.

I shall be at

Lavender Cottage

all this week.
