For Sir de Langle

I am enclosing a notice of this year's dinner given by the Anglo-Austrian Society. Lord Haldane will give an address on science and literature with special reference to Austria, Sir Henry Hadow, a great authority on music, will speak on Austria's mission in the sphere of music, and I shall give an account of the progress in the reconstruction of my country.

I should be so grateful if you could take tickets and if you could also induce some of your friends to come to this dinner, thus helping us to make it a success.

Please let me know whether we may count on you.

Yours very sincerely,

J. S. Zantzen
