

9th February, 1925.

Messrs. J. Walter Thompson Co.,
Bush House,
Aldwych, W.C.2.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter, I am desired by Mr. de Laszlo to say that he has just terminated the portrait of the American Ambassador, Mr. Kellogg which is to be officially presented to the American Embassy, here, in continuation of the portraits of the past Ambassadors. The portrait will be photographed to-day and, as Mr. de Laszlo promised you, he will let you have a photograph for publication in America.

Mr. de Laszlo also would be glad to know when he will receive a copy of the paper with the Queen of Rumania, and he would like to know what you have arranged about the portrait of H.H. The Pope which is being, today, officially placed at the Bodleian Library, Oxford.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
