

8th November, 1928.

Patricia, Countess of Cottenham, 34, South Street, S. I.

Dear Madam,

Mr. de Haazio has asked me to say he hopes you will forgive a typewritten letter as he is so very busy in his studio. He wishes me to say that he will be very pleased if you will give him the pleasure of your visit with your friend on Tuesday next, the 13th at 4.15.

Hoping that this will be convenient,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
