Dear Sir

I am a great admirer of your work in Royal Scottish Academy, & will feel honoured & delighted, by your kind acceptance of the enclosed little poems.
that Sir David G. Cameron says he considers are full of the spirit of Lovely Nature - on the strength of this I venture to send them, & trust the verses may appeal to you.

Beauty is to me, a never ending joy, & Scotland is so beautiful we have just returned from a Savoy holiday spent on East Lothian Coast, & at Melrose, Abbotsford, & Dryburgh Your appreciation will give the utmost pleasure.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

John Young
