

THE
 CARLTON HOTEL
 AVENUE LOUISE, 101
 BRUXELLES

June 21st / 25

My dear Philip,

Here we are in London and hoping in some way sometime some how our paths may cross during the summer. Of course you are busy & if work were not your relaxation or if you did not live for Art or if Art were not yours.

of every life the true woman have been without a body there many years - Before leaving you received the copy of the art journal containing the very full appreciation of your recent paintings and a most interesting sketch of your artistic development And then in top of that, a rather trip to America!
Heed the warning of a friend - Take a slow steamer to rest, rest, rest because you will swamped with commissions from your many admirers who will not take no for an answer.

It is a great source of pleasure to us that Mrs. & Mr. 's will accompany you - why not young? who would that have a chance to see America before he makes the great decision to leave you? Your his last letter more than intimated that he intended to return with you.
However fathers, especially mothers have too much influence on their children that "outsiders" do not have a fair chance.

Of course we are here in business - at Brussels, midway between Paris & The Hague where we shall have to spend some time. In December of last year as in the first week of January of this we were at Lima in for the Peru, attending a Congress on an official delegati of the United States; next summer in Rio de Janeiro as an official delegati to the Commission of Jurists who are to codify Brazilian Law for the American Republics & so it goes. "Our life is but a battle & a march" as Schiller puts it, In the intervals I continue to do a little something for myself - "L'un verre est peut mais je bois deux jours verre"

---

which means that one of these days - the near future I hope you will receive a little volume with my complaints, which, however, you do not need to read. It is a twice-told tale but it seems that we of good will must be telling it to the unwilling ear of the world.

This is just a line to tell you we are here, that we hope to meet in that place & every where we love you Yours truly
J. P. Jones
