

189. Queen's Gate
S. W. 7.

Thursday

My dear Friend,

Many thanks for your note and the trouble you have taken on my behalf.
I rang up Sam Guinness and next week I am going to see him. Tell me all about your party with the Crown Princess of Roumania.

I was so pleased to see Mr. Kellogg's portrait in "the Times". I never saw any "artists' picture reproducent" such a huge size. It is an excellent portrait. I saw that it will be a success when you showed it to me

after the first sitting.

The other day I sent the article about you in the Illustrated
News, to the Post.
They made use of it.
I hear you are leaving on the 23rd.
I shall miss you; but we know when you are back and shall come
with you on a visit to Mr. & Mrs. Taylor, Jersey, and Johnny!
Your old friend
Robt. G.
