Dear M. de Luzzi, I just learned from the Morning Post of your arrival. May I take the first opportunity to express my heartiest congratulations for your latest success in London and in Madrid. I am very sorry that I have to leave today for Budapest, as I would have liked to call upon you and discuss the repatriating of the two Huntaway pictures, which are at a final stage. With your and Lord Kilmorner's support M. de Stroy got wonderful impetus. He will be soon in London again. He would like to ask you to increase the sum for your blank canvas as he got in America already a much higher bid for it. You <sup>will</sup> very much oblige me, if you would be kind enough to tell me

Your opinion about that matter.

P. S. Please give my sincere compliments to Mrs. de Litzels.
