OXENFORD HALL,
OXFORD

Dec 12 1930

Dear Mr de Laszlo,
Through our mutual friend Mr John Robertson I have received your very kind invitation to see the portraits of Mr Harold Macmillan and his wife & your further kindness in asking my wife & myself to lunch some time.

I am ashamed not to be able to avail myself of the opportunity but I have not been quite well lately and am trying to keep out of London & then tomorrow I am going down to the South Coast till after Christmas, so I hope you will allow me to defer the pleasure of making your acquaintance till I come back. I was very glad to hear from our friend your very appreciative words on my Spanish Exhibition. With many thanks,

Sincerely yours

Muriel Bone
