My dear Laszlo

You may remember that at my instigation, you inspected some productions of Kevin Ryan, the son of Sir Gerard Ryan. The enclosed letter is from his father & explains itself. If you can help the young fellow to attain his desire I am sure you will take pleasure in doing so Tomorrow. Devonport

Dear Sampson

I have just now written to Sir Gerald Rye telling him that on the 20th of Oct. the jury of the R. B. A. will view the works of applicants for memberships & that my duty will be to review their Decisions.

I hope that Mr. Vivian Ryan will this time be elected a member of the Society - I shall certainly give him the benefit of my casting vote, if his work is up to the standard -

Yours sincerely

Sampson
