Dear Mr. de Kozlo.

Just a line to thank you for your telegram & to say how delighted both my wife & I are that you can come to lunch with us at Claridges' at 1.15 on Thursday. We will have the Baronne de Varasseur, whom I think you met at Costebelle last March, with us, — she is staying with us here — also Mr. Case, who was also at Costebelle, & (I hope) Lord & Lady Clanmorris! We both hope your son is going on perfectly satisfactorily, & I am

Yours sincerely

J. B. Younger.
