F. FLORESTA - PROPRIETARIO

dear Philip,

Very many thanks for your long account of the doings of yourself and family, it gave me great pleasure living as I do to speak in exile, to hear from friends one is fond of, is a great pleasure, indeed, I thought the sending you these beautiful and splendid reproductions, and that splendid photo of yourself in that fine Hungarian dress, his was our son, Paul only I myself should see admirer than I should just me but people and them level to admire them.
In short, all you wrote and sent me to illustrate palpably your friendship for me!
gives me the greatest satisfaction. I read with interest what you say of the desires you have now in view, and your projects of
