My dear Philip,

I am very busy packing and trying to find an Hotel for the winter as the Hotel where I am down now cost 95% of all the hotels down. I am down now people don't stay at hotels in the winter they say it is not warm enough. I have also been very busy trying to find a partner from whom to buy but I wasn't successful. There are one or two good ones but they are too busy & have no time.

I found a most excellent sculptor, a real artist, who does quite a very little perhaps I will try to get some instructions from him. A nice person from top art as artist from top to two!! Those girls laugh it was it was successful I will look it up today in the English papers. I have in my library a book like yesterday it is very like I would do my best to buy them there is beautiful Japanese. I do hope you are well. Love all well. With love, Old Man
