"SAN MARCO,"

SEDE IN VENEZIA

on board

Molonaro Francesco Morosini

My dear Philip,

I am on board this ship which left Trieste at midday and at 8.30 I arrive at Gussingiacolo, the capital of the Island of Gussino.
I have been there some 35 years ago and I hear it is still a quiet, unspoiled place.

I am very grateful to you for the great help you have given me and as to staying in Venice. But all my arrangements were already done and my trunk on the way to Gussino should be there, however at K-nie, my place is I want trees and shrubs, and flowers to be happy and to live on the pavement. But, I will go to Venice another time to work.

I will see how Gussino suits me as a residence, and I will spend all my time in work.

King; of course I ought to have regular teaching but I tried last in other cities of Italy to study the climate couldn't stand more as I cannot write so shaking Philip says I want to say dear extremely many thanks for your very kind letter forgive me that but I say times nervous! The last domestic life have over-35 years my nerves. next year wrought I hope we must I will get to more ideas

law.
I love Appony's portrait succeeded very well you will love it time in Paris.
With love friend
your old friend
