My Dear Philip

I am expecting your letter from you by express but I am disappointed at not receiving any news. But, no news is good news. I hope you explains to the cause of your silence. I expect you are making your preparations to spend the Easter Holiday at that dear Swiss place of yours "Little Switzerland". I hope you will be very happy there. Give my love to your mother & father. I received your letter of the 4th of April. I was glad to hear that I was still remembered on the garden.

Every hour of the day I am working for the recovery of the "Society of Margaritha". The whole world is now joining in the cause. There is another day of life. I am full of joy. I tell you that the whole world is the best for me and he also says I am working directions I can't come it.

But still I go on with my lessons up till the end of May when the school does. The Prater school down here is a splendid school and by English supported by other artists. I am told rather the school by seeing stu-

Rome, though a delightful city, has its drawbacks. The climate is unpleasant either it is raining or if not it is intolerably stuffy and smelly and dusty too. The foot on the

with Hungarians.

My plans are uncertain. I thought
like to spend the winter in the mountains. I want to play a great fresh air.

Country to paint and peace. No motor cars and no people.
But, I am afraid
it is not to be found.

It would be too good to be true. Yesterday I went to the square. I saw her hair is dead blonde.

Portrait of Acquedotto by Claudio

This is all the news I have to tell my dear friends and I hope a letter is already on its way from you
which will bring me good news from all of you.

To finish up my letter I want to tell you that you are admitted here all to visit. To several of you (artists) of various size and reputation of the portrait you have generously made of myself. Hardly they glance at it they recognize it that it is by you. And with no other joy, with enthusiasm, of Lodi!

He is a great artist!
