My dear Philip
I beg you will work at the "Printed" drawing of arch, a very good school in the Via Margutta.

They are 2 classes. The first the best model, a interesting bearded old lion. Enrico Arco, an professor, a portrait painter who told me he is a great admirer of yours. He is just going to get a portrait from you.
I ask a portrait from you.

It is a pity that am not younger drawing times the especially my eyes. I also found a good painter Anniviti in whose studio I will have painting lessons, and my wife goes to to paint in the evening.

To begin my work
paral you are not a very
I will not give you
