PART I.

RESTRICTIONS ON ALIENS ENTERING AND LEAVING THE UNITED KINGDOM.

Approved Ports and Prohibited Ports.

1.—(1) For the purposes of this Order, the following ports are approved ports, that is to say:—

Newcastle-upon-Tyne,	Bristol,
Hull,	Holyhead,
London,	Liverpool.
Folkestone,	Glasgow,
Southampton,	Dublin;
Falmouth,

Definition of approved ports and prohibited ports.

Order of Secretary of State, May 17, 1916.

and any other port or place in the United Kingdom is, for the purposes of this Order, a prohibited port.

(2) For the purposes of this Order the limits of the approved ports shall be those specified in the First Schedule to this Order, and any part of an approved port outside those limits shall be treated as though it were part of a prohibited port.

(3) A Secretary of State may by order, after consulting the Admiralty and the Army Council, add any port to the list of approved ports, or remove any port from that list, and prescribe or alter the limits of any approved port; and this Order shall thereupon have effect accordingly.

Aliens entering the United Kingdom.

2.—(1) An alien shall not land in the United Kingdom at a prohibited port:

Provided that—

(a) where a Secretary of State is satisfied that an alien friend has arrived at a prohibited port in ignorance of the provisions of this Order or in any other circumstances entitling him to special consideration, and may safely be permitted to land, he may grant him permission accordingly; and Aliens not to land at prohibited ports.

(b) subject to the provisions of this Order the foregoing prohibition shall not, unless in any particular case an aliens officer so directs, apply to an alien friend who is the master or a member of the crew of a vessel arriving at a prohibited port, if whilst he is on shore he complies with such requirements (if any) as may be imposed upon him or upon masters and seamen generally by an aliens officer at the port;

and any alien friend who lands in accordance with this proviso, and, if conditionally disembarked, who complies with the conditions, shall not be liable to any penalty for landing at the port in question.

3. An alien enemy shall not land in the United Kingdom at an approved port without the permission of a Secretary of State.

4. An alien arriving at an approved port may, if a Secretary of State so directs, or if an aliens officer at the port is satisfied that he cannot safely be permitted to land in the United Kingdom, be treated as though the port were a prohibited port.

5. An alien landing in contravention of this Order, and an alien arriving at any port in circumstances in which he is prohibited from landing, may, until dealt with under this Order, be detained in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct, and whilst so detained shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

6. An alien shall not land at any port in the United Kingdom having in his possession—

- (a) any firearms or other weapons, ammunition, or explosives;
- (b) any petroleum spirit, naphtha, benzol, petroleum, or other inflammable liquid in quantities exceeding three gallons;
- (c) any apparatus or contrivance intended for or capable of being used for signalling apparatus, either visual or otherwise;
- (d) any carrier or homing pigeons;
- (e) any motor car, motor cycle, or aircraft; or
- (f) any cipher code or other means of conducting secret correspondence;

and where an alien lands with any such articles in his possession he shall forfeit the articles and shall be deemed to have imported them in contravention of the provisions of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, as though the articles in question were contained in the table of prohibitions and restrictions set out in section forty-two of that Act :

Provided that where an aliens officer considers that an alien friend arriving at any port may safely be permitted to land with any such articles as aforesaid in his possession, he may permit him to land accordingly, and the foregoing provisions of this Article shall not apply.

7. An alien conditionally disembarked under the directions of an aliens officer for the purpose of inquiry or examination shall not for the purposes of this Order be deemed to have landed so long as the conditions are complied with.

Alien enemies not to land without permits.

Powers with respect to aliens landing at approved port.

Detention of aliens arriving in United Kingdom.

Aliens not to enter United Kingdom with firearms, &c.

Conditional landing.

Aliens leaving the United Kingdom.

8. An alien shall not, except in pursuance of an order of deportation under this Order, embark in the United Kingdom at a prohibited port:

Aliens not to embark at prohibited ports.

Provided that—

- (a) where a Secretary of State is satisfied that any alien friend who desires to embark at a prohibited port may safely be permitted to do so, he may grant him permission accordingly; and
- (b) subject to the provisions of this Order the foregoing prohibition shall not, unless in any particular case an aliens officer so directs, apply to an alien friend who is the master or a member of the crew of a vessel leaving a prohibited port;

and any alien friend who embarks in accordance with this proviso shall not be liable to any penalty for embarking in the United Kingdom at the port in question.

9. Where an alien enemy is about to leave any port on board a vessel on which he has arrived at the port he may for the purposes of this Order, if a Secretary of State so directs or if it appears necessary to an aliens officer in the interests of public safety, be treated as though he had embarked at that port in contravention of this Order, but shall not be subject to any fine or imprisonment for so embarking.

Provision as to alien enemies leaving a port without having landed.

10. An alien enemy shall not, except in pursuance of an order of deportation under this Order, embark in the United Kingdom at an approved port, unless provided with a permit issued by a Secretary of State:

Alien enemies not to embark without permit.

Provided that an alien enemy about to embark in the United Kingdom at an approved port, even when provided with such permit as aforesaid, may, if a Secretary of State so directs, or if in the opinion of an aliens officer he cannot safely be permitted to embark, be treated as though the port were a prohibited port.

11. An alien embarking or about to embark in the United Kingdom in contravention of this Order may, until dealt with under this Order, be detained in such manner as a Secretary of State may direct, and whilst so detained shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

Detention of aliens embarking.

12.—(1) A Secretary of State may order the deportation of any alien, and any alien with respect to whom such an order is made shall forthwith leave and thereafter, or so long as the order remains in force, remain out of the United Kingdom.

Deportation of aliens.
Nov. 6, 1916.

(2) Where an alien is ordered to be deported under this Order, he may, until he can, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, be conveniently conveyed to and placed on board a ship about to leave the United Kingdom, and whilst being conveyed to the ship, and whilst on board the ship until the ship finally leaves the United Kingdom, be detained in such manner as the Secretary of State directs, and, whilst so detained, shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

Nov. 6, 1916.

(3) An order made under this Article may, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, specify the time during which the alien is to remain out of the United Kingdom, and may be revoked at any time by a Secretary of State.

Special Provisions as to Masters and Seamen.

Provisions
with respect to landing of alien seamen.

12A.—(1) An alien, being the master or a member of the crew of a vessel arriving at any port to which this Article is applied by order of a Secretary of State, shall not land at that port unless he has in his possession a passport issued to him not more than two years previously by or on behalf of the government of the country of which he is a subject or a citizen, or some other document satisfactorily establishing his nationality or identity, to which passport or document there must be attached a photograph of the alien to whom it relates.

(2) Where an alien is under the provisions of this Article prohibited from landing at any port, an aliens officer at that port may nevertheless grant him temporary permission to land for such purposes and subject to such conditions as a Secretary of State may from time to time prescribe, either generally or as respects any particular port or vessel.

Obligations on masters of vessels.

13.—(1) The master of every vessel, whether British or foreign, arriving at or leaving a port in the United Kingdom shall, immediately on the arrival of the vessel at that port, or, as the case may be, not more than twenty-four hours before leaving that port, furnish to an aliens officer at that port, with respect to all persons on board the vessel, or intending to embark on the vessel, such particulars in such manner as a Secretary of State may direct, and shall otherwise take all reasonable steps in his power for securing the enforcement of this Order.

(2) The master of a vessel arriving at or leaving any port shall not permit any persons to land or to embark without the sanction of an aliens officer at the port.

(3) Where a person lands or embarks at any port in contravention of this Order, the master of the vessel from which he lands or on which he embarks shall, unless he proves the contrary, be deemed to have aided and abetted the offence.

Obligation to afford passage to aliens.

14. The master of a ship about to call at any port shall, if so required by a Secretary of State or an aliens officer, receive an alien and his dependants, if any, on board his ship and afford him or them a passage to that port, and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage, and, if the ship is the same or belongs to the same owners as the ship in which the alien arrived in the United Kingdom, shall, if so required as aforesaid, afford such passage, accommodation, and maintenance free of charge.

Aliens Officers.

Aliens
officers.

15.—(1) The following persons, that is to say—

(a) any immigration officers appointed under the Aliens Act, 1905; and

(b) any persons appointed for the purpose by a Secretary of State;

shall be aliens officers for the purposes of this Order at the various ports in the United Kingdom, and shall in the exercise of their powers act under general or special instructions from a Secretary of State, and, subject to such instructions, shall have power to enter on board any vessel, and to detain and examine all persons arriving at or leaving any port in the United Kingdom, and to require the production of any documents by such persons, and generally to take such steps as are sanctioned by this Order or as may be necessary for giving effect to this Order.

Exceptions.

16. This Part of the Order shall not apply—

- (a) to prisoners of war; or
- (b) to children appearing to an aliens officer to be under the age of fourteen.

Part I. not to apply in certain cases.

PART II.

RESTRICTIONS ON ALIENS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

Power of Secretary of State as to Residence of Alien Enemies.

17. A Secretary of State may by order require any alien enemy to reside or continue to reside or cease to reside in any place or district specified in the order, and the alien shall comply with the order.

Power to order alien enemies to reside or cease to reside in certain areas.

Prohibited Areas.

18. The areas specified in the Second Schedule to this Order shall be prohibited areas for the purposes of this Order:

Prohibited areas.

Provided that—

Nov. 6, 1916.

- (a) a Secretary of State may by order, after consulting the Admiralty and the Army Council, add any area to the list of prohibited areas in the said Schedule or remove any area or part of an area from that list, and this Order shall thereupon have effect accordingly; and
- (b) where any area contained in the list of prohibited areas in the said Schedule comprises more than one registration district, each of those districts shall be a separate prohibited area^(a); and
- (c) where more than one of the areas contained in the said list are comprised in one registration district, the whole of the areas so comprised shall be treated as one prohibited area^(a).

18A. An alien enemy shall not enter, or reside or continue to reside either temporarily or permanently in any registration district or part of a registration district which is a prohibited area unless provided with a permit issued by the registration officer of the registration district, subject to the general or special instructions of a Secretary of State.

Alien enemies in prohibited areas.
Nov. 6, 1916.

(a) For instance; in the case of the county of Sussex each registration District in the county (viz. East Sussex, West Sussex, Brighton, Hove, Hastings and St. Leonard's, and Eastbourne) is a separate prohibited area; in the case of the County of Cambridge, the municipal borough of Wisbech, the Urban District of March, and the rural districts of Thorney and Wisbech, are together to be treated as one prohibited area.

Additional restrictions on aliens in respect of prohibited areas.

Nov. 6, 1916.

18B.—(1) An alien shall not, without the special permission of the registration officer of the registration district, enter, or be in any registration district or part of a registration district which is a prohibited area unless he has in his possession an identity book obtained in pursuance of this Order and duly filled in and attested:

Provided that—

- (a) where an alien was on the thirteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and sixteen, resident in any such district or part of a district and duly registered, this provision shall not apply to him in respect of that registration district or part of a registration district so long as he continues to reside therein; and
- (b) a Secretary of State may exempt from the provisions of this Article any class of aliens, where he is satisfied that satisfactory means are provided for their identification, other than the possession of an identity book; and
- (c) an alien coming from any place out of the United Kingdom and landing in the United Kingdom without an identity book may, subject to the provisions of this Order, be allowed to proceed to his destination in the United Kingdom if the passport or other document with which he is required to be furnished on landing in the United Kingdom contains, or if he supplies, such of the particulars required to be contained in an identity book as may be required by an aliens officer; but any such alien shall proceed directly to his destination, and on arriving there shall, within twenty-four hours, comply with all the provisions of this Order which are applicable to him; and
- (d) this Article shall not apply to an alien who enters or is in a prohibited area for the sole purpose of immediate embarkation at a port therein; and
- (e) this Article shall not apply to an alien who appears to be under the age of eighteen and is in the care of some other person who is over that age.

Nov. 6, 1916.

(2) Subject to the special or general instructions of a Secretary of State, any alien who has after the thirteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and sixteen, entered any registration district or part of a registration district which is a prohibited area, and in which he was not resident on that date, may be ordered by the registration officer of the registration district to leave the area forthwith, and not to enter that area subsequently without his special permission, and the alien shall comply with the order.

Nov. 6, 1916.

(3) Where any such special permission of a registration officer as aforesaid has been granted subject to any conditions, and the person to whom it is granted fails to comply with any such condition, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of this Order.

Identity books.

18c.—(1) The provisions contained in the Third Schedule to this Order shall have effect with respect to identity books.

(2) If any person uses for the purposes of this Order an identity book relating to any person other than himself, or, in filling in or attesting the particulars in an identity book, or for the purpose of obtaining an identity book, whether for himself or any other person, makes any false statement or false representation, he shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order.

Any person who purports to attest the particulars in an identity book when any of the relevant particulars in the book have not been filled in and signed shall be deemed to have made a false representation in attesting the particulars in an identity book.

June 27, 1916.

(3) If any alien to whom an identity book has been issued, or who is required to be in possession of an identity book under this Order fails to produce his identity book when so required by any officer, or by any soldier or sailor engaged on sentry patrol or other similar duty, or by any aliens officer or police constable, he may, without prejudice to any other penalty, be detained pending the making of inquiries as to his identity, and while so detained shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

Nov. 6, 1916.

Registration in General.

19.—(1) An alien, wherever resident, shall comply with the following requirements as to registration:—

Registration of aliens.

- (a) he shall as soon as may be furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is resident particulars as to the matters set out in the First Part of the Fourth Schedule to this Order;
- (b) he shall, if he is about to change his residence, furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is then resident particulars as to the date on which his residence is to be changed, and as to his intended place of residence, and on effecting any change of residence from one registration district to another he shall also forthwith report his arrival in the registration district into which he moves to the registration officer of that district;
- (c) he shall furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is resident particulars of any circumstance affecting in any manner the accuracy of the particulars previously furnished by him for the purpose of registration within forty-eight hours after the circumstance has occurred.

(2) Where an alien is lodging with or living as a member of the household of any other person, it shall be the duty of that person either himself to furnish with respect to the alien the particulars aforesaid, or to give notice of the presence of the alien in his household to the registration officer.

(3) Where an alien has a household he shall furnish the particulars as aforesaid not only as respects himself, but as respects every alien who is living as a member of his household.

(4) A Secretary of State may by order direct that in any area specified in the order this Article shall not apply in respect of that area to alien friends resident in the area on the fourteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and sixteen.(a)

(a) By order dated the 4th February, 1916, the Secretary of State directed that the Article should not apply in respect of the Metropolitan Police District to alien friends resident in that District on the 14th February, 1916. (See, however, footnote on following page.)

July 7, 1916.

Where the Secretary of State has made an order under this provision in respect of any area, he may, without prejudice to his power to revoke the order, by subsequent order or orders limit the operation of the first order by directing that the exemption conferred thereby shall not apply to alien friends of any class or description specified in the subsequent order or orders, and on the making of any such order this Article shall apply to alien friends of that class or description accordingly as from the date specified in the order.^(a)

(5) This Article shall not apply in the case of Belgian refugees, but Belgian refugees shall be subject to the special provisions as to the registration of Belgian refugees set out in Articles 20B to 20D of this Order.

Registration of alien seamen.

Nov. 6, 1916.

19A. Where a vessel remains for twenty-four hours or more at any port to which this Article is applied by order of a Secretary of State, an alien being the master or a member of the crew of the vessel, shall for the purposes of Article 19 of this Order be deemed to be residing in the registration district in which the port is situate, and shall accordingly comply with the requirements of that Article as to registration; and where the alien is a member of the crew, the master of the vessel shall, as soon as may be, give notice of his presence on board the vessel to the registration officer of that registration district.

Nov. 6, 1916.

Register of aliens.

20.—(1) Subject to the special provisions of Article 20D of this Order as to the registration officer for the registration of Belgian refugees, the chief officer of police of the police district shall be the registration officer, and the police district shall be the registration district, for the purposes of this Order:

Provided that where a prohibited area includes the whole or part of more than one police district, arrangements may be made by a Secretary of State for constituting that prohibited area a single registration district, and for the appointment of a registration officer for that district.

(2) A registration officer shall—

- (a) keep for his registration district a register for the purposes of this Order;
- (b) register therein all aliens resident in his district who furnish particulars for the purpose, by entering these particulars on the register;
- (c) enter on the register all other particulars furnished in accordance with this Order with respect to any alien so registered; and
- (d) if a registered alien ceases to be resident in his district, record the fact in the register.

(3) The obligation of a registration officer to enter particulars upon the register shall not be affected by the fact that the particulars may not have been furnished within the time required by this Order, without prejudice, however, to the liability of an alien to a penalty for not furnishing the particulars within the required time.

(a) By order dated the 14th July, 1916, the Secretary of State directed that the exemption conferred by his order of the 4th February, 1916 (see footnote on previous page) should not as from the 22nd July, 1916, apply to male aliens of French, Italian, Russian or Serbian nationality, aged 18 years and upwards.

(4) Every alien shall furnish to the registration officer, in addition to any such particulars as aforesaid, any information which may reasonably be required for the purpose of registering the alien, or maintaining the correctness of the particulars entered on the register.

20A.—(1) It shall be the duty of the keeper of every hotel, inn, boarding-house, and lodging-house, to keep a register of all persons over the age of fourteen years staying at the hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house, who are aliens.

Registers of aliens to be kept by hotel
keepers, &c.

The keeper of every such hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging house shall, as soon as may be after any such person comes to stay at the hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house, ascertain and enter in the register kept for the purpose, his name and nationality, together with the date of his arrival; and on the departure of any such person, he shall, as soon as may be, enter the date of departure and destination on departure of that person in the register, and he shall also ascertain and enter in the register from time to time such other particulars as may be prescribed by a Secretary of State, and if the keeper of an hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house fails to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of this Article, or if he makes any entry in any such register which he knows or could by the exercise of reasonable diligence have ascertained to be false, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of this Order.

(2) The keeper of every hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house shall also, if directions for the purpose are issued by a Secretary of State, make to the registration officer of the registration district in which the hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house is situate, such returns as to the persons staying at the hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house, at such times or intervals and in such form as may be specified in such directions, and if he fails to do so, or makes any false return, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of this Order.

(3) It shall be the duty—

(a) of the keeper of every hotel, inn, boarding-house, and lodging-house, with a view to ascertaining whether any person staying at the hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house is or is not an alien, to require every person (whether an alien or not) who stays at the hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house to furnish to him, in such form as may be prescribed by a Secretary of State, a signed statement as to the particulars contained in that form; and

(b) of every person (whether an alien or not) to furnish the said particulars and such a signed statement as aforesaid when so required.

If the keeper of any hotel, inn, boarding-house or lodging-house fails to require any person staying at the hotel, inn, boarding-house or lodging-house to furnish such information as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of this Order; and if any person staying at the hotel, inn, boarding-house or lodging-house fails to give information when so required, or gives any false information, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of this Order.

(4) Every register kept under this Article, and all particulars furnished under this Article, shall at all reasonable hours be open for inspection by any officer of police or by any person authorised by a Secretary of State.

(5) In the application of this Article to hostels or other boarding-houses in which Belgian refugees are lodged, the manager or secretary, or any other person charged with the management of the hostel or boarding-house shall, whether he receives payment or not, be deemed to be the keeper thereof.

June 27, 1916.

(6) The fact that the rooms or any of the rooms in a house are let unfurnished shall not prevent the house from being deemed to be a lodging-house for the purposes of this Article.

Registration of Belgian Refugees.

Central register of Belgian
refugees.

20b.—The Registrar-General shall keep a central register of all Belgian refugees in the United Kingdom and shall enter therein all particulars with respect to Belgian refugees which are, under this Order, either furnished to him as registration officer of the metropolitan police district or furnished to other registration officers and communicated to him by them.

Registration of Belgian refugees.

20c.—(1) A Belgian refugee shall, wherever resident, comply with the following requirements as to registration:—

- (a) he shall, as soon as may be, furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is resident particulars as to the matters set out in the Second Part of the Fourth Schedule to this Order;
- (b) he shall, if he is about to change his residence, furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is then resident particulars as to the date on which his residence is to be changed, and as to his intended place of residence, and on effecting any change of residence from one registration district to another he shall also forthwith report his arrival in the registration district into which he moves to the registration officer of that district.

(2) Where a Belgian refugee is lodging with or living as a member of the household of any other person, it shall be the duty of that person to take steps to secure compliance with the terms of this Order in respect of that refugee.

(3) Where a Belgian refugee has before the twenty-eighth day of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen, furnished particulars in accordance with Article 19 of the Aliens Restriction (Consolidation) Order, 1914, or has before that date been registered with the Registrar General, it shall not be necessary for him to furnish particulars again in pursuance of this Order, provided that he complies or has complied with paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this Article.

20D. The registration officer for the registration of Belgian refugees in the metropolitan police district and in the City of London shall be the Registrar General, and elsewhere shall be the same as under the foregoing provisions of this Order, that is to say, the chief officer of police:

Registration officer for Belgian refugees.

Provided that the Secretary of State, or in Scotland the Secretary for Scotland, may, in special circumstances and subject to such conditions as he may think fit, substitute any other person or body of persons for the chief officer of police as the registration officer for Belgian refugees in any registration district.

Nov. 6, 1916.

General Restrictions.

21. An alien enemy shall not travel more than five miles from his registered place of residence unless furnished with a permit from the registration officer of the registration district in which that place of residence is situate, which permit shall not cover a period exceeding twenty-four hours from the date of its issue and shall be returned to the registration officer at the end of the period for which it was issued:

Prohibition on alien enemies travelling more than five miles from registered address.

Provided that—

- (a) any such permit may, if the registration officer in view of any special circumstances so decides, cover a period exceeding twenty-four hours, but not exceeding four days, from the date of its issue, subject, however, to the condition that the holder thereof shall on each day during the currency of the permit report himself to the registration officer of the registration district in which he then is, and subject also to any other conditions which may be prescribed by the registration officer granting the permit; and
- (b) where any such permit is granted to any person with a view to his leaving one registration district and going to reside in another, the permit may, at the end of the period for which it was issued, be delivered to the registration officer of the new district instead of being returned to the registration officer by whom it was granted; and
- (c) in the case of an alien enemy having a bonâ fide place of business more than five miles from his registered place of residence the registration officer may, if he thinks fit, grant a permit enabling him to travel to or from his place of business, which shall be renewable from time to time as and when the registration officer so directs.

Nov. 6, 1916.

22.—(1) An alien enemy shall not, except with the written permission of the registration officer of the registration district in which he is resident, be in possession of—

Prohibition on alien enemies having firearms, &c., in their possession.

- (a) any firearms or other weapons, ammunition, or explosives, or material intended to be used for the manufacture of explosives:

Nov. 6, 1916.

- (b) any petroleum spirit, naphtha, benzol, petroleum, or other inflammable liquid in quantities exceeding three gallons;
- (c) any apparatus or contrivance intended for, or capable of being used for, a signalling apparatus, either visual or otherwise;
- (d) any carrier or homing pigeons;
- (e) any motor car, motor cycle, motor boat, yacht, or aircraft; or
- (f) any cipher code or other means of conducting secret correspondence;
- (g) any telephone installation;
- (h) any camera or other photographic apparatus;
- (i) any military or naval map, chart, or handbook.

(2) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting any contravention of the foregoing provision, he may grant a search warrant authorising any constable named therein to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein, and to seize any article which is being kept in the premises or place in contravention of this Article.

Where it appears to a superintendent or inspector of police, or any police officer of higher rank, that the case is one of great emergency, and that in the interests of the State immediate action is necessary, he may by a written order under his hand give to any constable the like authority as may be given by the warrant of a justice under this Article.

Aliens engaged on munitions work.

March 30, 1916.

Nov. 6, 1916.

June 27, 1916.

June 27, 1916.

22A.—(1) An alien shall not undertake or perform munitions work, as defined in this Order, unless permission in writing has been obtained by him or on his behalf from the Minister of Munitions and is for the time being in force.

(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this Article, as from such date or dates as may be fixed by order of a Secretary of State^(a), an alien (wherever resident) shall not undertake or perform munitions work unless he has in his possession an identity book obtained in pursuance of this Order and duly filled in and attested.

(3) A person shall not employ any alien on munitions work if the alien is by this Order prohibited from undertaking or performing the work.

(4) A person shall not take any steps to obtain the services of aliens or any alien not in the United Kingdom for munitions work in the United Kingdom except with the permission in writing of the Minister of Munitions, and subject to such special or general conditions as the Minister may impose.

(a) By order dated the 23rd August, 1916, the Secretary of State fixed the 1st September, 1916, and in the case of establishments to which the provisions of section 7 of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, as amended by any subsequent enactment are or have been applied subsequently to the 1st August, 1916, one month from the date on which the provisions in question were applied.

(5) A person shall not engage or take any steps to engage an alien who is in the United Kingdom for employment on munitions work except through a Board of Trade labour exchange. Nov. 6, 1916.

(6) A person who is employing any alien on munitions work shall, unless he has already sent such notice, forthwith send notice of the fact to the Minister of Munitions, which notice shall state the name, nationality, sex, address, and age of the alien, and also such further particulars with respect to the alien as the Minister may require; and where an alien who is employed on munitions work leaves or is about to leave such employment, his employer shall before he leaves, or within twenty-four hours after he leaves, as the case may be, send notice of the fact to the nearest Board of Trade labour exchange and to the Minister of Munitions, which notice shall state the same particulars as aforesaid. Nov. 6, 1916.

(7) Where application is made by or on behalf of an alien for permission to undertake or perform munitions work the alien shall, if so required by the Minister of Munitions or the Board of Trade, attend for inquiry at such time and place as the Minister or Board may direct.

(8) The occupier of every establishment to which the provisions of section seven of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, as amended by any subsequent enactment, are applied by order of the Minister of Munitions, shall take steps to bring to the notice of any aliens employed in the establishment the provisions of this Article. Nov. 6, 1916.

(9) Any permission given by the Minister of Munitions to an alien under this Article may be made subject to such conditions as the Minister may think fit to impose on the alien to whom it was granted, and the Minister may also impose conditions on any person employing any alien on munitions work as to the manner in which the alien is to be employed, and any such alien or employer shall comply with any conditions so imposed.

Any permission given by the Minister of Munitions under this Article may be at any time revoked by the Minister.

22b. A person shall not take steps to obtain the services for work other than munitions work in the United Kingdom of aliens or any alien not in the United Kingdom except with the permission in writing of the Board of Trade, and subject to such special or general conditions as the Board of Trade may impose. Engagement of aliens for work other than munitions work. Sept. 7, 1916. Nov. 6, 1916.

23.—(1) The circulation among alien enemies of any newspaper wholly or mainly in the language of a State, or any part of a State, at war with His Majesty, is prohibited, unless the permission in writing of a Secretary of State has been first obtained, and such conditions as may be prescribed by a Secretary of State are complied with. Restriction on circulation of newspapers amongst alien enemies.

(2) Any person publishing or distributing any newspaper for circulation in contravention of this Order shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order, and where a Secretary of State is satisfied that any newspaper has been, or is about to be, published or distributed for circulation in contravention of this Nov. 6, 1916.

Order, he may authorise such persons as he thinks fit to enter, if needs be by force, any premises, and to seize any copies of the newspaper found thereon, and also any type or other plant used or capable of being used for the printing or production of the newspaper, and to deal with any articles so seized in such manner as a Secretary of State may direct.

Nov. 6, 1916.

Restrictions
with respect
to banking.

24.—(1) An alien enemy shall not carry on or engage in any banking business except with the permission in writing of a Secretary of State, and to such extent and subject to such conditions and supervision as a Secretary of State may direct, and an alien enemy who is or has been carrying on or engaged in banking business shall not, except with the like permission, part with any money or securities in the bank where he is or has been carrying on or engaged in business, and shall, if so required, deposit any such money or securities in such custody as a Secretary of State may direct.

(2) Any constable, if authorised by a superintendent of police, or officer of higher rank, may, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Article, enter, if necessary by force, and search or occupy any premises in which the business of banking is or has been carried on by an alien enemy.

(3) For the purposes of this Article, any person who is a member of a firm or a director of a company carrying on banking business in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to be carrying on banking business.

Power to close clubs.

25.—(1) A chief officer of police, if so authorised by general or special order of a Secretary of State, may direct that any premises within his jurisdiction which, in his opinion, are used for the purposes of a club which is habitually frequented by alien enemies, shall be kept closed, either altogether or during such hours as may be required by him; and where any such direction is given in respect of any premises, no alien enemy shall enter or be on the premises at any time when the premises are directed to be closed.

(2) Any constable, if authorised by the chief officer of police, may, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Article, enter, if necessary by force, and search or occupy any premises to which an order under this Article relates.

Change of name by alien enemies.

25A.—(1) An alien enemy shall not for any purpose assume or use, or purport to assume or use, or continue the assumption or use of any name other than that by which he was ordinarily known at the date of the commencement of the war.

(2) Where an alien enemy carries on or purports or continues to carry on, or is a member of a partnership or firm which carries on or purports or continues to carry on any trade or business under any name other than that under which the trade or business was carried on at the date of the commencement of the war, he shall, for the purposes of this Article, be deemed to be using or purporting or continuing to use a name other than that by which he was ordinarily known at the date of the commencement of the war.

(3) Nothing in this Article shall affect the right of a woman who marries an alien enemy to use the name which she acquires on her marriage.

(4) A Secretary of State may, if it appear desirable in any particular case, grant an exemption from the provisions of this Article.

race 25B.—(1) A registration officer may, subject to the general or special instructions of a Secretary of State, grant to a Turkish subject resident in his registration district, who is shown to his satisfaction to be by race a Greek, Armenian, or Syrian, or a member of any other community well known as opposed to the Turkish régime, and to be a Christian, a certificate of exemption from all or any of the provisions of this Part of this Order, except such as apply to alien friends. Power to grant exemptions to certain Turkish subjects.

(2) Any such certificate shall be operative throughout the United Kingdom, but may be revoked by the registration officer who granted it or by the registration officer of any registration district in which the holder is for the time being resident. No. 6, 1916.

(3) Any such certificate which has been granted before the twenty-seventh day of January, nineteen hundred and sixteen, shall not have effect so far as it exempts the holder thereof from any provision which applies to alien friends under this Order.

PART III.

GENERAL.

26. If any person acts in contravention of or fails to comply with any provisions of this Order, he is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding six months, and the court before which he is convicted may, either in addition to or in lieu of any such punishment, require that person to enter into recognizances with or without sureties to comply with the provisions of this Order or such provisions thereof as the court may direct. Penalty.

If any person fails to comply with an order of the court requiring him to enter into recognizances the court or any court of summary jurisdiction sitting for the same place may order him to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months.

27.—(1) If an alien, master of a ship, or other person arriving at or leaving any port lands or embarks without the permission of an aliens officer, or refuses to answer any questions reasonably put to him by an aliens officer, or makes or causes to be made any false return, false statement, or false representation to an aliens officer, or refuses to produce any document in his possession which he is required by an aliens officer to produce, or obstructs or impedes an aliens officer in the exercise of his powers or duties under this Order, he shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order. Disobedience to aliens officers and other offences.

(2) If any person furnishes or causes to be furnished to a registration officer any false particulars, or, with a view to obtaining any permit or permission under this Order, makes or causes to be made any false statement or false representation, he shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order.

Time for taking proceedings.
Nov. 6, 1916.

27A. Proceedings for any offence under this Order, or under any Order revoked by this Order, which consists of making or of causing to be made any false statement, false representation, false return, or false information, or of furnishing or of causing to be furnished any false particulars, may be instituted at any time within two months after the statement, representation, return, information, or particulars, as the case may be, was or were discovered to be false.

Place for taking proceedings.
Nov. 6, 1916.

27B. For the purpose of the trial of a person for any offence under this Order, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which the same actually was committed or at any place in which the offender may be.

In Ireland, for the purposes of such trial, a summons may be issued by a justice to a witness who is not within his jurisdiction, and any such summons may in Ireland be issued, served, and enforced in the same manner as a summons to a witness within the jurisdiction of the issuing justice.

Persons aiding and abetting.

28. If any person aids or abets any person in any contravention of this Order, or knowingly harbours any person whom he knows or has reasonable ground for supposing to have acted in contravention of this Order, he shall be deemed himself to have acted in contravention of this Order.

Arrest.

29. Any person who acts in contravention of this Order, or is reasonably suspected of having so acted, or being about so to act, may be taken into custody without warrant by an aliens officer or by any constable.

Additional powers of Secretary of State.

30.—(1) A Secretary of State may, if he thinks it necessary in the interests of public safety, direct that any of the provisions of this Order as to alien enemies shall in particular cases be applicable to other aliens, and thereupon such provisions shall apply accordingly.

(2) A Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, direct that any powers or duties assigned under this Order to aliens officers or to registration officers shall be discharged by other persons deputed by a Secretary of State for the purpose.

(3) A Secretary of State, with a view to giving full effect to this Order, may direct that passengers on ships entering or leaving any port in the United Kingdom shall be subject to such restrictions, control, and supervision as may appear necessary or expedient, and may impose general conditions as respects ships entering or leaving any such port, and it shall be the duty of all persons to comply with any such direction.

31. For the purposes of this Order—

The expression "superintendent of police" includes in the case of the Royal Irish Constabulary a sergeant and any officer of higher rank.

Order not to apply to ambassadors, &c.

June 27, 1916.

33.—(1) Nothing in this Order shall be construed as imposing any restriction or disability on any foreign ambassador or other public minister duly authorised, or any servants in actual attendance upon any such ambassador or public minister.

(2) Nothing in this Order imposing restrictions or disabilities on aliens shall be construed as imposing any such restriction or disability on an alien friend who for the time being is serving as a member of His Majesty's military forces (including an alien friend who whilst serving as a member of those forces is on leave in the United Kingdom):

Provided that the relief conferred by this provision shall not extend to members of the army who are for the time being transferred to the reserve, or to members of His Majesty's volunteer forces.

Short title, construction, and revocation.

34.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Aliens Restriction (Consolidation) Order, 1916.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) The said Orders in Council of the ninth day of September nineteen hundred and fourteen, the eighth day of October nineteen hundred and fourteen, the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, the seventh day of January nineteen hundred and fifteen, the thirteenth day of April nineteen hundred and fifteen, the twenty-eighth day of July nineteen hundred and fifteen, and the twenty-seventh day of January nineteen hundred and sixteen, are hereby revoked:

Nov. 6, 1916.

Provided that the revocation of any Order by this Order shall not—

- (a) affect the previous operation of any Order so revoked or anything duly done or suffered under any Order so revoked; or
- (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any Order so revoked; or
- (c) affect any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any Order so revoked; or
- (d) affect any proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid, and any permission or direction given, or order, requirement, or appointment made, authority issued, or other action taken under any Order so revoked shall be deemed to have been given, made, issued or taken under the corresponding provision of this Order.

35. Where by any Order in Council for the time being in force made after the making of this Order any articles or words are directed to be added to or omitted from this Order or to be substituted for any other articles or words in this Order, then copies of this Order printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office after such direction takes effect may be printed with the articles or words added or omitted or substituted for other articles or words as such direction requires and with the articles and sub-sections thereof numbered in accordance with such direction, and this Order shall be construed as if it had at the time at which such direction takes effect been made with such addition, omission, or substitution.

Amending Orders.

A reference in any Order in Council or other document to this Order shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed to refer to this Order as amended by any Order in Council for the time being in force.

The provisions of this Article shall apply to orders of the Secretary of State made under this Order varying Article one of, or the First, Second or Third Schedule to, this Order as they apply to Orders in Council.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

Article 18c.

IDENTITY BOOKS.

1. An identity book shall be in such form as a Secretary of State may prescribe.

2. An identity book shall not be issued to any person who has already obtained one unless he surrenders his former book or gives a satisfactory explanation of the circumstances which prevent him doing so.

3. An identity book shall not be issued to an alien who has come to the United Kingdom since the beginning of the war unless he produces a passport issued to him not more than two years previously by or on behalf of the Government of which he is a subject or citizen, or gives a satisfactory explanation of the circumstances which prevent his doing so.

4. There shall be payable in respect of each identity book issued a fee of one shilling.

5. There shall be entered in the identity book such particulars with respect to the applicant as may be specified in the form of identity book prescribed by the Secretary of State, and that form shall be filled in by the applicant, attested by two householders of British birth, and certified by a police officer, in the manner shown in the form.

6. The Secretary of State may from time to time make such alterations in the form of identity books, or in the provisions of this Schedule, as he may think fit.
